

I am in favor of the Fcc action that would broaden the limits of Indiana's "No Call" list. The current law in Indiana was created, in my opinion, to benefit certain types of businesses and exclude others and feel that ultimatly will harm business activity in the state and surrounding states. Ann Moore